

TENNESSEE
OUTDOOR CLASSROOMS

OUTDOOR CLASSROOM
SYMPOSIUM
Friday, May 8, 2009
8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.
Montgomery Bell State Park
Dickson, Tennessee

Learn how to create and utilize outdoor classrooms to enhance instruction in all subjects.

Daily doses of nature help children have less stress, more creativity, better concentration, and higher self esteem. Give them this opportunity in your school's outdoor classroom.

Concurrent sessions will include topics such as gardening for wildlife, math gardens, developing and using a wetland, cultivating natural intelligence, birds as educators, the naturalist's journal, finding support/grant partnerships, and activities for teaching all subjects outdoors.

This workshop is for teachers, administrators, custodians, parents, and non-formal educators. Schools are encouraged to send a team consisting of faculty, staff and parents. The TN Dept. of Education will provide a limited amount of funding to reimburse public education systems for substitutes employed to cover for teachers in attendance. Reimbursement will be available on a first-come first-served basis.

Space is limited. Mail your completed registration form and check today.

Registration deadline is April 3.

Registration Fees:

$75 individual registration fee includes all sessions, luncheon, conference materials and individual TEEA membership. Additional participants from the same school are $50 each. Schools that send more than one participant will receive a TEEA organizational membership.

2009 Symposium is hosted by Tennessee Environmental Education Association, TN State Parks, and the TN Wildlife Resources Agency.
